The ANSWER Key Routine for Extended Response

Analyze the question
- Determine the essential question and task
- Determine the kind of evidence required
- Mark key words in the question

Note plan
- Set up two-column notes
  - Restate the question at the top
  - Set up logical main ideas in the left column

Skim, read and Select
- Skim to get the big picture
- Read actively
  - Identify and mark relevant information
- Select specific and accurate information that is related to the question and record in notes
  - Main ideas in left column, supporting details in right column
- Check the notes for organization and sufficient text evidence

Write the response
- Write an introductory statement.
- Combine the left and right columns of notes into sentences that explain how the evidence supports the main ideas
- Write a concluding statement
- Use transition words

End by Revising
- Reread the question
- Check the answer for organization and clarity
- Revise to improve the answer
- Edit for conventions