

JOHN P. NASO

OBJECTIVE

Passionately committed to student development and establishing productive learning environments. Determined to use technology to design engaging, educational, and enriching lessons and activities that inspire and motivate children.

EDUCATION

1995-1999 Bachelors of Science, 1999 University of Vermont, Burlington Vermont
General Science Teacher Certification, State of New Hampshire

EXPERIENCE

Monadnock Regional Middle/High School, Swanzey, NH 2003 - Present
7th & 8th Grade Science Teacher

Teaching assignments include preparation and instruction of life science, physical science, earth and space science. Design an enrichment technology course where students create movies, web pages, video games and Photostories to present relevant research.

Key Contributions:

- Data Team Chair 2010 - Present
- Middle School Academic Team Leader 2009 - Present
- Middle School Science Department Leader 2009- Present
- Selected Member of the Tablet Pilot Program – 2012 -Present
- Differentiated Instruction Coach -2010 - 2012
- Member of the School Board Technology Committee 2012- Present
- Boys Varsity Soccer Coach 2004 –Present
- K-12 Science Alignment Committee – 2008 – 2010
- Leader of Various Fundraising efforts
- Leader of Field Trip planning
- Innovator of Instructional Technologies in Classroom
- Redesigned the middle school science curriculum using the backwards design model

Thayer Middle School, Winchester, NH 1999-2003
7th Grade Science Teacher

Teaching assignments included preparation and instruction of life science. Implemented the Invention Convention and organized the school Science Fair for students in grades 6-10.

TRAINING AND STAFF DEVELOPMENT

- Literacy Training – Keys to Literacy
- Learning Styles – Thoughtful Education Network
- Staff Evaluation using Teacher Frameworks – Charlotte Danielson
- NH Department of Education – Alternative IV. Teacher Mentor
- Differentiated Instruction – Vicki Gibson

AWARDS AND HONORS

- MRHS “Husky of the Month” – 2012, 2011, 2010

ACTIVITIES AND MEMBERSHIP

- Monadnock Soccer Club – President & Camp Director
- New Hampshire Science Association – Member
- National Science Teacher Association – Member
- ASCD – Member
- National Soccer Coaches Association of America – Member
- New Hampshire Interscholastic Athletic Association (NHIAA) Soccer Rules Committee